

K-love translators are the only consistent contemporary Christian radio in Redding. I never have to worry about my kids listening to this local station. Replacing K-love with a LPFM would handicap our growth potential and reduce our opportunity for individuality. This station provides not only local access to contemporary Christian music and news but also nation wide comprehensive uninterrupted (city to city) access. Please consider our local needs in your decision making....Thank you....Steve Tucker